FISCAL AND OPERATIONS +- Successfully implemented the Customer Relation Management (CRM) tool HubSpot at CSC. HubSpot has three distinct hubs – Marketing Hub, Sales Hub, and Service Hub — that work together. The top six reasons for using HubSpot are 1. Centralize our contact data to build better cohesive relationships with our clients and to reduce duplicative data management. 2. Customize marketing to discover and anticipate our clients’ needs. 3. Strategically builds our fee-for-service offerings by identifying hot prospects. 4. Provide centralized management, consistent processes, and reporting capability for technical assistance (TA) and our services. 5. Help clients find answers to basic questions to free up staff time for higher-level TA. 6. Enhance and streamline the onboarding of staff and clients. We currently have 21,685 contacts in HubSpot. HubSpot helps us better understand our current and future client needs and behaviors to provide targeting marketing. It also raises brand awareness and reinforces our presence in the field. We began the pilot implementation of PheedLoop, event planning software, for large events. CSC used the PheedLoop event planning platform for three fall events: the Refugee Education Summit/Paving the Way Conference for the refugee, foster care and Education for Children and Youth Experiences Homelessness (ECYEH) initiatives; the School Safety Summit presented by the Center for Safe Schools; and the EMPOWER Conference through our PSAYDN initiative.

The four CSIU school programs at NCSTU are operated in three buildings on the grounds of the Danville State Hospital and have a capacity to serve 120 students (approximately 60 boys in two schools and the capacity for 60 girls in two schools). Each school is operated in a general secure environment and has a staff of highly qualified teachers who offer academic instruction in English, Math, Science and Social Studies, as well as Vocational/Industrial Arts electives and Health/Physical Education. Boys in our Admission Schools can obtain a full Welding Certification. The schools provide a secondary curriculum that meets the PDE Core Academic Standards. Our students range in ages from 14-20. Due to the differences in ability, achievement and attainment, and in light of the limited role juvenile corrections education has in a student’s comprehensive formal education, the school programs are adapted in accordance with age, development and individual needs based on initial assessments using the GAIN (General Assessment for Instructional Need) and prior student educational records. The school’s programs allow students to obtain credit toward graduation or to earn a high school diploma in accordance with PDE Chapter 4 regulations or obtain a GED while at NCSTU. A total of 140 students were served.
