WATCH Core Mission

The Work Attributes Toward Careers in Health Project provides a variety of academic and social support services to income-eligible individuals in a ten-county region to enter or move up in a high-priority health care career. Meeting local health care industry needs, the program increases skills, provides critical services and moves participants toward self-sufficiency.

The WATCH Project assists students in preparing for careers as:

- Direct Care Workers (DCW)
- Certified Nursing Assistants (CNA)
- Licensed Practical Nurses (LPN)
- Registered Nurses (RN)
- Emergency Medical Technicians (EMT)
- Paramedics (EMT-P)
- Pharmacy Technicians

A five-year Health Profession Opportunity Grant from the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, the WATCH Project is administered by the Central Susquehanna Intermediate Unit.

Ms. Susan Smith, RN, Nurse Recruiter
Centre Crest
502 E. Howard St.
Bellefonte, PA 16823

Dear Ms. Smith,

Please accept the accompanying resume as my application for the full time Licensed Practical Nurse Position listed on the Centre Crest website. As you can see from my resume I have long term care experience as a Certified Nursing Assistant. I completed one of my clinical rotations at Centre Crest so I am familiar with many of the residents, procedures and practices at your organization.

I graduated with high honors in July from the Practical Nursing Program at the Central Pennsylvania Institute of Science and Technology in Pleasant Gap and I recently passed the Pennsylvania NCLEX-PN. I have current clearances and just completed my CPR/AED re-certification. I have excellent clinical skills and references, and I am very excited to begin my professional nursing career with Centre Crest. I do believe in treating every resident with dignity and respect as stated in the Centre Crest mission statement and I was well-liked by all my residents during my clinical training. Because of my long term care experience, I understand the importance of respecting each resident’s individuality, the importance of showing up on time when scheduled to work, and the importance of being dependable and reliable.

I would appreciate the opportunity to meet with you in person to learn more about the position and to answer any questions you may have about my background and qualifications. You may reach me at (814) 555-5555 any day before 1:00 p.m. or you may contact me through email at kcarney@gmail.com. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Kathy M. Carney, LPN

ELEMENTS OF A TAILORED COVER LETTER

A tailored cover letter is one that is written in response to a newspaper or magazine advertisement, or as a result of a networking contact. You know that a job opening exists and you have some information on job responsibilities and requirements. This is your golden opportunity to demonstrate to the potential employer that you are perfectly suited for the position.

Before you begin writing a tailored cover letter, first go over all the information you have on the job. Underline the job responsibilities and qualifications and then look at how your experience, education, skills, etc., match the ad. Your goal in writing a tailored cover letter is to show how your qualifications for the position match the employer’s requirements. As you review the information, try to match each of the employer’s points with relevant details from your background.

Here is the structure of a Tailored Cover Letter:

- PART ONE: Introduction
  Indicate your interest in the advertised job. Mention the specific job title and the source of your lead, i.e. the CareerLink, the newspaper, a networking contact, etc.

- PART TWO: Sell Yourself
  Using the information you have on the job and knowing your skills, write a paragraph that demonstrates you are the perfect match for the position. Include basic details about your background, training, or experience to show your qualifications for the job. You may include past successes you have had. Refer the reader to your enclosed résumé for more detailed information about your qualifications.

- PART THREE: Request Action
  Your goal, of course, is an interview, so you need to request an appointment for an interview. If you are responding to a “blind ad,” then end the letter by telling the employer that you look forward to meeting with her/him.

Do not underestimate the cover letter. It is often a more important factor in securing interviews than most people realize. As a result, make sure it is neat, grammatically correct, positive, and informative.
Date

Ms. Sandra Jones, Nurse Recruiter
Human Resources
ABC Hospital
1234 American Avenue
Minneapolis, MN 55555

Dear Ms. Jones:

Opening Paragraph: State why you are writing, identify the position for which you would like to be considered, and indicate how you heard of the position. Mention any individuals who may have referred you to the position. If you are sending an inquiry letter, simply indicate the type of work or position you are seeking. Be specific.

Middle Paragraph(s): Your goal here is to show how you can be useful to this particular hospital/organization. Describe what strengths you have to offer this employer. Highlight particular clinical experiences, jobs, internships, achievements, and extracurricular activities as they relate to the position in which you are interested. You might want to use one of the following approaches:

- Identify three reasons for the employer to consider you for the position.
- Describe your previous accomplishments as they relate to the position.
- Illustrate the relationship between your skills and experience and the position you are applying for.
- State why you want to work for their hospital/organization.
Refer the reader to your enclosed resume for additional information.

Closing Paragraph: End your letter by clarifying what will happen next, indicating your desire for an interview, and how they can most easily reach you. If you are applying for a specific job which has been posted, you might say, "I look forward to meeting with you to discuss my qualifications in more detail. I can be reached between (time) on (days) or a message may be left at (phone #)." If you are not applying for an existing opening, indicate that you will call them on a particular date to see when it would be convenient to set up a meeting, and also indicate how they can most easily reach you.

Sincerely,
(Always sign your name.)

Ms. Lisa Hall, RN, Nurse Recruiter
Brookline Village
1950 Cliffside Dr.
State College, PA 16801

Dear Ms. Hall,

I have just graduated from the Central Pennsylvania Institute of Science and Technology Nurse Assistant Training where I had the top grade in my class of 14 students. At my graduation on February 13, 2013 I was also recognized by our instructor for my compassion during our clinical training at Centre Crest. I am very interested in working at Brookline Village because of the reputation Brookline has and it is my number one choice of places to work as a Certified Nursing Assistant. I believe that my caring attitude and ability to learn quickly will be an asset to Brookline Village.

I am scheduled to take my Red Cross CNA exam on March 13, 2013 but I am available to begin as a nurse aide before my exam and I can start immediately. My physical and 2-step PPD are recent (November, 2012) and I have current FBI, PA Criminal, and Child Abuse clearances also from November, 2012. I had excellent training at CPI and at Centre Crest for my clinical. I am outgoing and a people person and I am very excited to continue my skill development at Brookline Village.

Thank you for taking the time to review my enclosed resume and application and I hope that I hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Kathy M. Smith
