

Support Your Local Businesses

LPN center holds graduation ceremony

MILTON — The Central Susquehanna LPN Career Center (CSLPNCC) graduated 15 students on Monday, Dec. 19. The ceremony was held at the Central Susquehanna Intermediate Unit in Milton.

The program was led by Dr. Timothy Campbell, director of the CSLPNCC, and included a procession of the 112th class of graduates. Remarks were made by the class speaker Destiny R. Keister, LPN of Millmont.

Keister mentioned the class motto of “No man left behind.” The motto was adopted while experiencing a couple of difficult years with hardships that also included acclimating to both online and in-person instruction throughout the COVID-19 pandemic. She thanked faculty and staff for always pushing for success, and families for pushing the graduates by putting the same amount of effort into helping them succeed in any way they could.

The following awards were presented: Academic Achievement Award, Ashley Brown; Academic Excellence Award, Indigo Zerby; and Clinical Excellence Awards, Devan Clements, Destiny Keister and Lindsay Resseguie.

PROVIDED BY HEATHER TAGGART

Graduates of CSIU's LPN Career Center include, front and from left, Minnie Allen, Madison Wertz, Devan Clements. Second row, Ashley Brown, Makayla Hakes, Destiny Keister, Paige Ramin, Lindsay Resseguie, Rebekah Hepler, Danielle Hollingsworth, Indigo Zerby. And rear, Riley Cox, Mickayla Fizzano, Callie Fish, Brittany Diehl.