15.3 Regional Media and Design Competitions (MADCom)
The CSIU sponsored and hosted the annual regional media and design competitions (MADCom), virtually testing students' computer knowledge and application skills. Overall, a middle school student from Danville Area School District submitted a project, while eight high school students from Danville Area, Line Mountain and SUN Area Vo-Tech submitted eight projects across five categories.

The first-place winners from this event will advance to the state competition to be held May 23-24, 2023 at Dickinson College in Harrisburg.

The CSIU has sponsored these regional competitions since 1998.

15.4 Esports League Tournament and Championship
Over the course of the 2022-23 school year, the CSIU sponsored and hosted the second annual Central Susquehanna Esports League Tournament and Championship. Throughout the season, participants competed virtually with a final face-to-face tournament on March 7, 2023 at the CSIU.

Esports requires players to develop various 21st-century skills such as critical thinking, problem-solving and communication. These skills are essential in Esports and various aspects of life, including education and employment. Esports provides a unique platform for individuals to hone their skills and potentially build a career in the industry.

Overall, 70 students participated in two brackets (A and B). Berwick Area School District was the 2023 A-Team winner, with Shamokin Area School District capturing the B-Team title. The A-Team winners will advance to the Pennsylvania Scholastic Esports League (PSEL) state virtual tournament, held throughout April and May 2023. More information can be found on the CSIU website at Student Competitions.

15.5 Regional STEM K'Nex Design Challenge
The CSIU sponsored and hosted the annual regional STEM and K'Nex Design Challenge for elementary and middle school students. Nineteen elementary students from three area schools (Central Columbia, Danville Area and River Valley Nature School) submitted four projects.

First-place elementary winners in grades 4-5 were from Danville Area, while second-place winners were from River Valley Nature. In addition to the elementary participants, 15 middle school students from five regional schools (Central Columbia, Danville Area, Midd-West and River Valley Nature) submitted five projects. First-place middle school winners in grades 6-8 were from Midd-West, followed by second-place winners from River Valley Nature.

The first-place winners from both groups will advance to the state-level competition to be held May 12, 2023 at the Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg.

15.6 Administration – Staff Travel
