WORK-STUDY SESSION

CARES TEAM

Chief Academic Officer Amy Morton provided an overview of the program and services administered by the Curriculum, Assessment and Regional Education Services team. Rae Ann Crispell, curriculum services coordinator, shared success stories of the clients served by the Hybrid Learning Institute, EduPlanet21 and Pre-Service Differently, which are just a few of the curriculum and professional learning initiatives. Katherine Vastine, WATCH Project program manager and CARES Team leadership coordinator, relayed examples of positive outcomes of outreach programs, including those that support teen parents on their way to completing their education, gaining employment and becoming responsible members of our communities. The Special Education and Early Childhood programs will be under the direction of the chief academic officer in the upcoming school year, and will round out the list of education services provided by the CARES team.

CSIU GENERAL OPERATING BUDGET

In February, CSIU directors gave their initial approval of the preliminary 2016-17 CSIU General Operating Budget (GOB) of $1,073,846 for services provided primarily to member school districts on a fee basis. It was then released to district boards for their consideration before final adoption by the CSIU board, which occurred at the April meeting.

Following are the results of the district votes:

- all 17 district boards approved the CSIU’s GOB;
- at the time of voting, 94 percent of all district directors were present; and
- of the total votes received, 144 directors were in favor, 0 opposed and 0 abstained.
SPOTLIGHT SEGMENT
Rae Ann Crispell, curriculum services coordinator, highlighted information about the K’Nex STEM Design Challenge, which involved 170 students over two days. Twelve of the regions’ districts and two non-public schools were represented in the competition.

NEXT MEETING
The next regular meeting of the board is scheduled for Wednesday, May 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the CSIU central office.

FISCAL MATTERS
CSIU directors accepted monthly financial reports and approved payment requests for March. Directors also approved the Easy Procure purchasing card program and an agreement with Hunt Engineers, Architects & Land Surveyors, PC, to provide a Building Condition Survey and prepare a Five-Year Capital Facilities Plan.
