OFFICE FOR DISPUTE RESOLUTION (ODR)—Resolution of special education disputes through a variety of methods, both federally mandated and voluntary processes. ODR provides seven distinct services:

CREATING AGREEMENT TRAINING—Conflict resolution skills training program for parents and educators.

SPECIAL EDUCATION CONSULTLINE—Information helpline for parents and advocates of children with disabilities who have questions or concerns about the education of a school-aged child. ConsultLine specialists answer questions and provide information about special education, gifted education and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. A bilingual specialist is available to serve Spanish-speaking callers.

IEP FACILITATION—Voluntary process that can be utilized when all parties to an IEP meeting agree that the presence of a neutral third party would help facilitate communication and the successful drafting of the student’s IEP.

FACILITATED RESOLUTION MEETINGS—When parties have difficulty reaching agreement at a resolution meeting, ODR offers neutral facilitators, which may yield to a more effective and successful meeting. A resolution meeting gives the parents and the school a chance to work together to avoid a due process hearing.

EVALUATIVE CONCILIATION CONFERENCE (ECC)—A consultant, who is experienced in special education law and due process, offers a confidential risk assessment of the issues in a dispute and helps to facilitate settlement discussions between the parties. A variety of information is available on the ODR website regarding ECC, including a fact sheet, brochure, FAQ, and request form.

MEDIATION—Voluntary and confidential alternative to a formal due process hearing.

DUE PROCESS—Parents or educational agencies may resolve educational disputes through a mechanism called due process, which differs from other dispute resolution opportunities in that a Hearing Officer decides the dispute for the parties.

STATEWIDE TECHNOLOGY SUPPORT SERVICES—Technical support in computer software, hardware, telecommunications, local/wide area networks, the Internet and database reporting for the components of the statewide Pennsylvania Training and Technical Assistance Network (PaTTAN), the Bureau of Special Education and other PDE bureaus.

ODR provides high-quality, relevant information to stakeholders on all aspects of the dispute resolution system. ODR also provides this information in various modalities, in an effort to meet the needs of multiple stakeholders.

ODR prepared a Parent Guide to Due Process, and updated the Special Education Dispute Resolution Manual, which are both available to constituents in English and Spanish.

ODR prepared a Parent Guide to Understanding Gifted Special Education Due Process Hearings and a Parent Guide for Understanding Special Education Due Process Hearings in Early Intervention for Infants and Toddlers, both of which will be available in English and Spanish.
